Workshops and seminars in 2019-2020 (All programmes were held offline)

Title of the Seminar/Workshop	No. of Participants	Date	Brief Report
Workshop on Career Counselling (The programme was organized by the counseling cell of the college and IQAC)	189	26/02/20	Lectures were delivered by the professionals from the following institutions: George Telegraph, Haripal International Institute Of Management Science,Uluberia N.B.Institute of Nursing And Management Studies,Maldah The speakers thoroughly explained the career opportunities in private (management) sector and the Government (nursing) sector. The students also interacted with them and gave feedback reports.
Workshop on Book Editing and Publishing (The workshop was organized only for the students of Bengali Honours, by the Department of Bengali and IQAC)	35	3/12/2019	Speakers: Dr. Amritesh Biswas, Dr. Aparupa Ghosh Both are senior project fellows, SCTR, JU They explained the rules of editing and publishing with visual aids. The students learn what to do in hand in hand.
Students' Seminar on Water Conservation (Students of the Department of Geography)	312	13/09/19 - 14/09/19	The main objective was to spread awareness of the necessity of water conservation. The students elaborately discussed the concept. They also suggested some measures to avoid wastage of valuable water resource in our daily life. They played a mime too. They also appealed to the authority to take initiative to install 'Rain Water Harvesting System' in our college top.
Workshop on Gender Equity	79	28/06/19	Speaker: Dr. Afroja Khatun, Associate Professor, Department of Bengali,SNCW, Kolkata She explained the various theories both in the west and in South Asia in the form of stories and practical experiences of feminism which the students could easily relate to. The focus on lived experience was an integral aspect of the workshop. Participants were apprised about the different layers of gender inequities present in society and were engaged in critical thinking and problem-solving exercises.

*Detailed reports are available in the concerned grid